If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of Association, with postage prepaid. If transmitted by facsimile, notice is deemed to be delivered on successful transmission of the facsimile.

Section 1.6 Quorum. The presence at any meeting, in person or by proxy, of members entitled to vote at least a majority of the total votes then outstanding shall constitute a quorum. In the event a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be adjourned to a time not less than forty-eight (48) hours nor more than thirty (30) days from the date of the time set for the original meeting and there

When a quorum is once present to organize a meeting, it cannot be broken by the subsequent withdrawal of a member in question.

Section 1.7 Proxies, No Cumulative Voting. At any meeting of members, the member entitled to vote may vote by proxy executed in writing by the member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. No cumulative voting will be allowed.

Section 1.8 Voting. Except as provided below or in Art. 2.29.A. of the Texas Business Association Act, each member by reason of its ownership, is entitled to vote upon a matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of members and will be entitled to one vote on such matter for each lot owned.

An Owner may cast its vote by any of the following methods: (i) in person or by proxy; (ii) by absentee ballot in accordance with Section 209.00592 of the Property Code; (iii) by electronic ballot in accordance with Section 209.00592 of the Property Code; or (iv) by any other method permitted under the Declaration. An absentee or electronic ballot (i) may be counted as an Owner present and voting for the purpose of establishing a quorum only for items appearing on the ballot; (ii) may not be counted, even if properly delivered, if the Owner attends any meeting to vote in person (any vote cast at a meeting in person supersedes any vote submitted by absentee or electronic ballot); and (iii) may not be counted on the final vote of a proposal if the motion was amended at the meeting to be different from the exact language on the absentee or electronic ballot. Votes solicited by absentee ballot must include the following: (i) an absentee ballot that contains each proposed action and provides an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action; (ii) instructions for delivery of the completed absentee ballot, including a delivery location; and (iii) the following language: "By casting your vote via absentee ballot, you will forego the opportunity to consider a vote on any action from the floor on these proposals if a meeting is held. This means that if there are amendments to these proposals your votes will not be counted on the final vote on these measures. If you desire to retain this ability, please attend any meeting in person. You may submit an absentee ballot and later choose to attend any meeting in person, in which case any in-person vote will prevail." For the purposes of this Section 1.8, an electronic ballot means a ballot: (i) given by e-mail, facsimile or posting on an Internet website; (ii) for which the identity of the property Owner submitting the ballot can be confirmed; and (iii) for which the property Owner may receive a receipt via electronic transmission and receipt of the Owner's ballot. If an electronic ballot is posted on an Internet website, a notice of the posting shall be sent to each Owner that contains instructions on obtaining access to the posting on the website.

For any lot in Waterford on Lake Travis which is owned jointly or in common by more than one person, such persons may designate in writing an individual member who shall be entitled to cast votes on behalf of the lot, and if all Owners do so, no other person shall be authorized to vote on behalf of such lot. Upon the failure of any Owners who own jointly or in common to file such designation with the Association, the vote of the first of such Owners to be cast on any particular issue shall be the governing vote for such lot; provided that, any vote cast in person at the meeting shall override any proxy, electronic, absentee or other method of delivering the vote. Any lot owned by an entity, as opposed to individual persons, shall designate its representative in the same manner. If no representative is designated, the Board may accept a vote from any person purporting to have authority on behalf of such entity, without duty of inquiry or investigation by the Board.

Any provision in the Association's governing documents that would disqualify an Owner from voting in an Association election of Board members or on any matter concerning the rights or responsibilities of the Owner is void.

Such consent will have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of members, and may be stated as such in any articles or documents filed with the Secretary of State, or any regulatory agency.

Section 1.13 Deleted in its entirety

The board of directors will consist of five (5) directors, but the number of directors may be increased or decreased (provided such decrease does not shorten the term of any incumbent director) from time to time by amendment to the By-laws, however there shall never be less than three (3) directors.

Each director shall hold office until an election of directors is held at the first annual meeting of the members, which shall be called pursuant to Section 1.2 herein. It is an Owner's duty to keep an updated e-mail address registered with the Property Owners' Association. If the Board recesses a regular or special Board meeting to continue the following regular business day, the Board is not required to post notice if the recess is taken in good faith and not to circumvent the law. If a regular or special Board meeting is continued for a third (3rd) day, the Board shall give notice of the continuation in at least one (1) manner prescribed by Item (ii)(a) above within two (2) hours after adjourning the meeting to be continued.
- (b) Action Permitted Without Notice. A Board may meet by any method of communication, including electronic and telephonic without prior notice to Owners, if each director may hear and be heard by every other director, or the Board may take action by unanimous written consent to consider routine administrative matters or reasonably unforeseen emergency or urgent necessity that requires immediate Board action. Any action taken without notice to Owners as set forth above may be summarized orally, including an explanation of any known actual or estimated expenditures approved at the meeting, and documented in the minutes of the next regular or special Board meeting. The Board may not without prior notice to Owners as set forth in 2.8(a) above consider or vote on any of the following: (i) fines; (ii) damage assessments; (iii) initiation of foreclosure actions; (iv) initiation of enforcement action, excluding temporary restraining orders or violations involving a threat to health or safety; (v) increases in assessments; (vi) levying of special assessments; (vii) appeals from a denial of architectural control approval or (viii) a suspension of a right of a particular Owner before the Owner has an opportunity to attend a Board meeting to present the Owner's position, including any defense, on the issue.

The act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is in attendance will be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or by these By-laws. No director may vote by proxy.

Section 2.10 Order of Business. At meetings of the board of directors, business will be transacted in such order as from time to time the board may determine.

The board of directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the number of directors fixed by these By-laws, designate two or more directors to constitute an executive committee, which committee, to the extent provided in such resolution, will have and may exercise all of the authority of the board of directors in the business and affairs of the Association, except that no such committee will have the authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the Articles of Incorporation, approving a plan of merger or consolidation, recommending to the members the sale, lease, or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Association otherwise than in the usual and regular course of its business, recommending to the members a voluntary dissolution of the Association or a revocation thereof, amending, altering, or repealing the By-laws of the Association or adopting new By-laws for the Association, filling vacancies in the board of directors or any such committee, electing or removing officers or members of any such committee, fixing the compensation of any member of such committee, or altering or repealing any resolution of the board of directors which by its terms provides that it will not be so amendable or repealable; and, unless such resolution expressly so provides, no such committee will have the power or authority to declare a dividend or to authorize a change in the qualifications for membership in the Association. The designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority will not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law.

ARTICLE 7. Books and Records

Section 7.1 Required Books and Records. The Association shall keep correct and complete books and records of account. The Association's books and records shall include:

- (a) A file-endorsed copy of all documents filed with the Texas Secretary of State relating to the Association, including, but not limited to, the articles of incorporation, and any articles of amendment, restated articles, articles of merger, articles of consolidation, and statement of change of registered office or registered agent.
- (b) A copy of the bylaws, and any amended versions or amendments to the bylaws.
- (c) Minutes of the proceedings of the members, Board of Directors, and committees having any of the authority of the Board of Directors.
- (d) A list of the names and addresses of the members, directors, officers, and any committee members of the Association.
- (e) A financial statement showing the assets, liabilities and net worth of the Association at the end of the three most recent fiscal years.
- (f) A financial statement showing the income and expenses of the Association for the three most recent fiscal years.
- (g) All rulings, letters, and other documents relating to the Association's federal, state and local tax status.

- (h) The Association's federal, state, and local information or income tax returns for each of the Association's three most recent tax years.
- (i) Governing Documents. All dedicatory instruments of the Association will be posted on the Association website.

Section 7.2 Records Inspection Policy.

- (a) Written Form. The Association shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.
- (b) Requesting in Writing; Pay Estimated Costs In Advance. An Owner (or an individual identified as an Owner's agent, attorney or certified public accountant, provided the designation is in writing and delivered to the Association) may submit a written request via certified mail to the Association's mailing address or authorized representative listed in the management certificate (if any) to access the Association's records. The written request must include sufficient detail describing the books and records requested and whether the Owner desires to inspect or copy the records. Upon receipt of a written request, the Association may estimate the costs associated with responding to each request, which costs may not exceed the costs allowed pursuant to Texas Administrative Code Section 70.3, as may be amended from time to time (a current copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit (A)). Before providing the requested records, the Association will require that the Owner remit such estimated amount to the Association. The Association will provide a final invoice to the Owner on or before the 30th business day after the records are provided by the Association. If the final invoice includes additional amounts due from the requesting party, the additional amounts, if not reimbursed to the Association before the 30th business day after the date the invoice is sent to the Owner, may be added to the Owner's account as an assessment. If the estimated costs exceeded the final invoice amount, the Owner is entitled to a refund, and the refund shall be issued to the Owner not later than the 30th business day after the date the final invoice is sent to the Owner.
- (c) Period of Inspection. Within ten (10) business days from receipt of the written request, the Association must either: (1) provide the copies to the Owner (hard copies, electronic copies, or other format reasonably available to the Association); (2) provide available inspection dates; or (3) provide written notice that the Association cannot produce the documents within the ten (10) days along with another date within an additional fifteen (15) days on which the records may either be inspected or by which the copies will be sent to the Owner.
- (d) Confidential Records. As determined in the discretion of the Board, certain Association records may be kept confidential such as personnel files, Owner account or other personal information (except addresses) unless the Owner requesting the records provides a court order or written authorization from the person whose records are sought.
- (e) Attorney Files. Attorney's files and records relating to the Association (excluding invoices requested by a Owner pursuant to Texas Property Code Section 209.008(d)), are not records of the Association and are not: (a) subject to inspection by the Owner; or (b) subject to production in a legal proceeding. If a document in an attorney's files and records relating to the Association would be responsive to a legally authorized request to inspect or copy

Association documents, the document shall be produced by using the copy from the attorney's files and records if the Association has not maintained a separate copy of the document. The Association is not required under any circumstance to produce a document for inspection or copying that constitutes attorney work product or that is privileged as an attorney-client communication.

- (f) Presence of Board Member or Manager; No Removal. At the discretion of the Board or the Association's manager, if any, certain records may only be inspected in the presence of a Board member or employee of the Association's manager. No such records may be removed from the office without the express written consent of the Board.

7.3 Records Retention Policy. The Association shall keep the following records for at least the time periods stated below:

- (a) PERMANENT: The Articles of Incorporation or the Certificate of Formation, the Bylaws and the Declaration, any and all other governing documents, guidelines, rules, regulations and policies and all amendments thereto recorded in the property records to be effective against any Owner and/or Member of the Association.
- (b) FOUR (4) YEARS: Contracts with a term of more than one (1) year or more between the Association and a third party. The four (4) year retention term begins upon expiration of the contract term.
- (c) FIVE (5) YEARS: Account records of each Owner. Account records include debit and credit entries associated with amounts due and payable by the Owner to the Association, and written or electronic records related to the Owner and produced by the Association in the ordinary course of business.
- (d) SEVEN (7) YEARS: Minutes of all meetings of the Board and the Owners.
- (e) SEVEN (7) YEARS: Financial books and records produced in the ordinary course of business, tax returns and audits of the Association.
- (f) GENERAL RETENTION INSTRUCTIONS: "Permanent" means records which are not to be destroyed. Except for contracts with a term of one (1) year or more (See item 10.b above), a retention period starts on the last day of the year in which the record is created and ends on the last day of the year of the retention period. For example, if a record is created on June 14, 2012, and the retention period is five (5) years, the retention period for the record ends on December 31, 2017. If the retention period for a record has elapsed and the record will be destroyed, the record should be shredded or otherwise safely and completely destroyed. Electronic files should be destroyed to ensure that data cannot be reconstructed from the storage mechanism on which the record resides."

Section 7.4 Audit. Any member shall have the right to have an audit conducted of the Association's books. The member requesting the audit shall bear the expense of the audit unless the members vote to authorize payment of audit expenses. The member requesting the audit may select the accounting firm to conduct the audit. A member may not exercise these rights to compel audits so as to subject the Association to an audit more than once in any fiscal year.

ARTICLE 8. Miscellaneous Provisions

Section 8.1 Offices. Until the board of directors otherwise determines, the registered office of the Association need not be the principal place of business of the Association, and such registered office may be changed from time to time by the board of directors in the manner provided by law. The principal place of business will be 18001 Kingfisher Ridge Drive, Lago Vista, TX 78645

Section 8.2 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association will be the calendar year.

Section 8.3 Seal. The seal of the Association will be such as from time to time may be approved by the board of directors.

Section 8.4. Notice and Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of these by-laws, said notice will be deemed to be sufficient if given by depositing the same in a post office box in a sealed postpaid wrapper addressed to the person entitled thereto at his post office address, as it appears on the books of the Association, and such notice will be deemed to have been given on the date of such mailing. A waiver of notice, signed by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, will be deemed equivalent thereto.

Section 8.5 Resignations. Any director or officer may resign at any time. Such resignations will be made in writing and will take effect at the time specified therein, or, if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the president or secretary. The acceptance of a resignation will not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation.

Section 8.6 Securities of Other Associations. The president, any vice president, or the treasurer of the Association will have power and authority to transfer, endorse for transfer, vote, consent, or take any other action with respect to any securities of another issuer which may be held or owned by the Association and to make, execute, and deliver any waiver, proxy, or consent with respect to any such securities.

Section 8.7 Application of Late Fees. After the Association notifies the Owner of a delinquency and the Owner's liability for late fees or interest in collection costs, any payment received by the Association shall be applied in the following order starting with the oldest charge in each category until that category is fully paid, regardless of the amount of payment, notations on checks and the date the obligations arose: (i) delinquent assessments; (ii) current assessments; (iii) attorney fees and costs associated with delinquent assessments; (iv) other attorneys' fees; (v) fines; or (vi) any other amount.

The Association shall offer a payment plan to a delinquent Owner with a minimum term of at least three (3) months and maximum term of eighteen (18) months from the date the payment plan is requested for which the Owner may be charged reasonable administrative costs and interest. The Association will determine the actual term of each payment plan offered to an Owner. An Owner is not entitled to a payment plan if the Owner has defaulted on a previous payment plan in the last two (2) years. If an Owner is in default under a payment plan at the time the Owner submits a payment, the Association is not required to follow the application of payment schedule set forth immediately above.

The Association may require that payment of delinquent Assessments be made only in the form of cash, cashier's check, wire or certified funds.

ARTICLE 9. Amendments

Subject to the provisions of the Association’s articles of incorporation, the By-laws may contain any provision for the regulation and management of the affairs of the Association not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation. The Association’s board of directors may amend or repeal the Association’s By-laws, or adopt new By-laws, unless (i) the articles of incorporation or the Act reserves the power exclusively to the members in whole or in part or (ii) the members in amending, repealing, or adopting a particular By-law expressly provide that the board of directors may not amend or repeal that By-law. Unless the Association’s articles of incorporation or a By-law adopted by the members provides otherwise as to all or some portion of the Association’s By-laws, the Association’s members may amend, repeal, or adopt the Association’s By-laws even though the By-laws may be amended, repealed, or adopted by its board of directors.
